

Helping local employers support local talent

A no cost recruitment and training solution

We help businesses fill their vacancies with job-ready individuals from their community. We also support employers to create learning and development opportunities for existing employees through our accredited training business.

A no-cost recruitment service, funded by the government.

Our employer offer

RECRUITMENT

Working with local governments, we are able to offer employers a no-cost recruitment service.

Whether you have one vacancy or 100 vacancies your dedicated Triage Employer Services Consultant can help you find the right person, first time round.

With our pre-screening offer, interview support and accurate job-matching record we are confident we can enhance employee retention and minimise the stress (and cost!) of recruitment.

We have access to a range of diverse, local talent who need the right employer to help them regain their financial independence through employment.

A no-cost professional and proven recruitment service, funded by the government.

Access to a dedicated Employer Services Consultant who is your single point of contact throughout your recruitment period.

We look after everything from selection and pre-screening, to interview preparation, onboarding and pre-employment training.

Choose from a wide range of local and diverse candidates.

It's a chance to give local talent an opportunity to regain their independence through employment and give back to your local community.

TRAINING

In addition to filling employer vacancies, Triage also offers employee training.

With up to 30 qualifications across six sectors, our training academies can help drive local business growth by providing responsive training for existing and new employees; we can train your new recruits before they join your business or, upskill existing employees – our training solution is based entirely around your need. Sectors include but are not limited to the following:

 Hospitality

 Retail

 Business admin

 Digital skills

 Warehousing

 Health and social care

 Support services

A no-cost professional and proven training service, funded by the government.

We complete a training needs analysis to connect training with business demand.

Identify skills needs for your new employees and deliver bespoke pre-employment training giving your new recruits the best start.

Whether you need a one-off training session or want to get some regular dates in the diary, our training offer can work around what's best for your business.

How it works

Step 1 Get in Touch

If you have a recruitment or training need, give us a shout:
employers@triagecentral.co.uk
01642 917015

Step 2 The brief

Within 24 hours of getting your message we will be in touch to arrange a chat where we can delve into your needs.

Step 3 Watch us work our magic

It's time to let us do our thing whether that is preparing a training package or finding you suitable, local talent.

Step 4 Continued support

Not only can we continue to offer your new recruits some in-work support ensuring high employee retention, we can also provide training for both new and existing team members.

Since we began in 1998, our mission has been to develop new and innovative approaches to employment and training that work for both individuals and companies alike.

Contact us

01642 917015

employers@triagecentral.co.uk

www.triagecentral.co.uk

About Triage

At Triage, we want to help local employers support local talent.

We help businesses fill their vacancies with job-ready individuals from their community. We also support employers to create learning and development opportunities for existing employees through our accredited training business.

Since we began in 1998, our mission has been to develop new and innovative approaches to employment and training that work for both individuals and companies alike.

Our vision is to be known for our great people, our great service, and our great results. Our services help people find stable employment and improve their quality of life. Ultimately, we want to help people succeed.

Delivering from locations across Scotland and North East England, Triage partners with multiple public, private and community organisations to deliver employment, education and training programmes that respond to the social, cultural and economic growth agendas.